New Announcements

Bread for the World 2015 Offering of Letters April 26th and May 3rd after Worship—Feed Our Children:

Child nutrition programs help meet the nutritional needs of millions of children, including millions at risk of hunger. Programs operate in every state and reach children at different ages. The School Lunch and Breakfast Programs serve meals at schools. The Summer Food Service Program helps children access meals and snacks during the summer months. The Child and Adult Care Food Program serves children in day care or in after-school programs. Finally WIC assists low-income women, infants and children up to age five. It provides foods that supply nutrients lacking in their diets, education on healthy eating, and even health care referrals.

Thanks to everyone at Faith who helped me celebrate my fifty-sixth birthday last week! Although I was in an all-day meeting at Rocky River for theological educators on April 14th, your cards, phone calls, and email messages were all very much appreciated. Thank you all so much! - Gene

The Faith Reading Group will meet on Wednesday, May 6th, to discuss Ann Weisgarber's The Promise, a work of historical fiction set against the background of the 1900 Galveston storm and told through the eyes of a young woman transplanted to Texas from Dayton, Ohio. Coffee in the kitchen at 7, discussion in the parlor at 7:30. All are welcome.

Join us at the Homewood Service: At 11:30 a.m. on the third Tuesday of every month, Faith provides a brief (30-minute) Protestant worship service for the residents of Homewood, the assisted living facility across Richmond Road. Donna Nedrow, Bert McGrath, Don Post, and Gene McAfee lead the service, but the services are always better when a few additional members of Faith Church attend. The staff and residents of Homewood appreciate this service, so please join us at 11:30 a.m. this Tuesday, April 21st, in the living room of Building Number 2. You'll be glad you did!

Andrew Vogt, his team Ohio United Sled Hockey placed in the Adult Team Division in Buffalo, NY on Sunday, April 12th. Thanks to his parents Ken and Mary Ellen for their encouragement this past weekend.

The Greenwood Farm Association is pleased to host the following two programs for the month of April. Further information can be found on the flyers posted on the bulletin board in the hallway. Title of Talk: Bat Houses and Ohio Butterflies on Saturday, April 25th, from 10:00 a.m. to Noon. Title of Talk: Famous and Infamous Women of Millionaires' Row with Dan Ruminski, Cleveland History Storyteller on Wednesday, April 29th, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Reservations suggested as seating is limited. Contact: donwilson416@gmail.com or phone 216-383-8867 for reservations.

Previous Announcements

South Euclid UCC invites everyone to its 2015 Leadership Summit, a series of quarterly retreats to engage, educate, equip, and empower lay leaders of local congregations. The next retreat will be on Saturday, May 2nd, when Gene McAfee will lead the keynote workshop on "Sheep and Goats: The Marks of a True Church." See the bulletin board across from the church office for more information.

Cleveland Clinic presents Ask the Experts: Aging Well this Wednesday, April 22nd, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Executive Caterers at Landerhaven in Mayfield Heights. Do you suffer from diabetes, high blood pressure, or sleep problems? Curious about that latest information on infectious diseases and up-to-date nutrition information? Ask your questions. Enjoy a lively, informative event that includes free health screenings, wellness information and a sit-down dinner. $15 (includes meal). Registration: 877.390.1732 or clevelandclinic.org/agewelleast

Join Women of Faith on Friday, May 1st, for supper at 6:00 p.m. in the Social Hall. A donation of a salad or a dessert is requested. A main dish will be provided. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Florence Roseman, who was a passenger on the S.S. Athenia. This was the first ship to be sunk by a German submarine at the beginning of W.W. II. She was sailing back to New York from England with her mother going to meet her father. She was in her early teens and tells a most fascinating story. This is a very interesting talk. Please sign up across from the kitchen. All women are invited, as are your guests. If you have any questions, please call Liz Duncan at 216-481-2476.

Save the date: The Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards are again coming to Cleveland and will be held at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 10th. It will be a gala ceremony at the Ohio Theatre in Playhouse Square.
