New Announcements

We hold in our prayers the family of Frank and Gail Yusko. Frank's father, Frank E. Yusko, died early last week. Calling hours will be tomorrow (Monday, Nov. 2nd) from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. at DiCicco and Sons Funeral Home (5975 Mayfield Rd., Mayfield Hts., at Lander Rd.), and a Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, at St. Francis of Assisi Roman Catholic Church (Mayfield Road just east of Hillcrest Hospital). Interment will be in All Souls Cemetery. Condolences may be sent to Frank and Gail and their family at 6284 Kenarden Dr., Highland Hts., OH 44143.

There's still time to donate to Bread! Last week's Bread for the World offering totaled $475.00. This is a very good amount that Faith offers to Bread each year as a Bread for the World Covenant Church. This amount is in addition to our budgeted support for Bread, which is $250.00. If you are planning to make a donation to Bread on behalf of Faith Church, please do so through the church office by Sunday, November 8th, and mark on the memo line that it is for Bread.

The Faith Reading Group will meet this Wednesday, November 4th, to discuss Anthony Doerr's All the Light We Cannot See. Meet in the kitchen at 7:00 p.m. for coffee. Discussion starts at 7:30 p.m. Please come.

Saturday Matinee Group: This Saturday, November 7th, the movie group will go to see Bridge of Spies. We will meet at the Atlas Cinemas at the Eastgate Shopping Center, for the showtime closest to 5:00 p.m. and have dinner afterwards. Please check the paper on Friday, November 6th for the time of the movie. You can call Jill Dugovics at 440-449-7832 if you have any questions about the time or the event. All are welcome.

Could you sum up Faith Church in a few words? If so, what would they be? The Ministry Leadership Council invites your suggestions for a tagline for Faith. A tagline (or slogan or perhaps even motto) is a short phrase or sentence capturing the essence of an organization, and in today's fast-paced world, brevity is an important part of making ourselves known. Here's an example of a church tagline (from Avon Lake UCC): "Growing People to Serve God and Others." Here's another: "Come Grow with Us!" (from the former Lyndhurst Baptist Church and also previously used by Faith). If you can find a few words summing up the life and mission of Faith Church, MLC would love to hear them. Please give them to the Chair of MLC, Gail Yusko (gail_robertson@progressive.com).

Women of Faith will travel to Providence House in Ohio City on Saturday, November 14th. Meet at Faith Church at 10:15 a.m. and we'll carpool to our 11:00 a.m. tour of Providence House and of Elisabeth's House, their new wellness nursery for children who no longer need a hospital stay but who are unable to go home because of domestic problems, including violence and homelessness. Providence House was the first licensed crisis nursery in the U.S. and Elisabeth's House is another national first. Join us and learn how Cleveland is changing the national conversation. Following the tour, we'll go to the Great Lakes Brewing Co. for lunch.

Ministry Chairs, please remember that the annual report for your ministry is due, by email, to Bob Goss (office@faithucrhoh.org) in the church office by Friday, November 20th.

Faith Church Preschool invites members of the church to participate in their current and upcoming fundraisers. A catalogue for Yankee Candle (due Thursday, November 12th, for delivery by Friday, December 18th) and RSVP slips for the Second Annual Chili Cook Off on Thursday, November 12th, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. are located on the church bulletin board upstairs and the preschool parent board downstairs. Please take a moment to participate in one or both. See Anne Marie Dorey or call 216-382-7010 with any questions.
