

New Announcements

Jan Linn, keynote speaker at this year's WRA-EOA joint annual meeting on Oct. 31st, will be discussing his book, A Different Jesus, at various churches in our associations in the week prior to the annual meeting. You can order a copy of the book at a special price of $11 through the Associations Support Center (330-940-2220) if you order by Sept. 11th. Please contact the Faith Church Office if you are interested in participating in one of the discussions of Linn's book, and watch for more information about the annual meeting in future bulletin announcements.

Join Women of Faith on Monday, September 14th, for supper at 6:00 p.m. in the Social Hall. Please bring a dish to share. The guest for the evening is Spirit of Clay. The cost per person is $13.00 to $15.00. Please bring a smock or apron with you. You can sign up across from the kitchen. All women are invited, as are your guests. If you have any questions, please call Autumn Abramczyk at 216-650-5948.

The Faith Reading Group will meet on Wednesday, October 7th, to discuss Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451. Coffee in the kitchen at 7:00 p.m., discussion in the parlor at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Please come.

The 7th Annual Fall Fun Fest at the Farm at Greenwood Farm, 264 Richmond Road, Richmond Heights, OH on Saturday, September 19th, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. What better way to say "good-bye" to summer and "hello" to autumn, than to visit a farm? Bring the whole family to beautiful Greenwood Farm. The day will be filled with fun for all ages, hayrides, historical presentation and tours of the main house and property, demonstrations, author and artist Jennifer Priester will be featuring and signing her latest book titled Mortal Realm Witch: Realms Unite, and author Vetella Camper featuring her book titled Maroon & Company. Games, live music throughout the day, provided by local bands including the band Reflections, Jungle Bob from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., former Cleveland FM DJ Matt Lisi, food for sale provided by Old Carolina BBQ and Classic Kettle Corn will top off the day! Admission to the fun fest is free, though a $2.00 per adult donation for the historical presentation and house tour is gladly accepted. All proceeds benefit Greenwood Farm renovations. We're on a Mission from God! What's behind the steady decline in membership of Christian churches in America, and the steady growth in the numbers of disaffiliated and disaffected Millennials and GenXers? Have the mission of the Church and its longstanding practices become irrelevant in today's world? We'll explore this question and a lot more in a seven-week series of Wednesday evening studies beginning this Wednesday, September 9th to October 21st, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the parlor. To find out more and sign up for the class, click on the "A Mission from God" link on the left side of the Faith UCC website, or see the Sign-Up Spot across from the kitchen.

Faith Friends: This Tuesday, September 8th, at 1:00 p.m. we welcome Karen Hunter as our speaker. Karen will display and tell about her collection of paper dolls, which she has been collecting since she was a small child. Karen has been sharing her paper dolls with various groups for the last five years. She has a masters degree in fine arts and during her career taught at several schools, including Richmond Heights High School. After retiring from teaching, she is now a paper doll artist. This very talented lady has been published in two paper doll magazines in the last two years, Paper Doll Studio and Paper Doll News and will be published in Doll News this coming year. Please come and welcome Karen back to Richmond Heights and Faith Church. Please invite your friends and refreshments will be served following the program.
